

ORDO

THE ORDER OF THE HOLY CROSS

The Ordo of the Order of the Holy Cross is the official calendar of feasts and fasts observed in our community along with their rank or degree of solemnity. This Ordo follows the simplified calendar provisionally approved at the Chapter of the Order in 2016. It may be used with The Monastic Breviary in either its 1976 or revised forms, with the service books published by the Camaldolese Benedictines and used in two OHC houses, or with any other authorized form of the daily office.

Observances listed as First Class feasts begin with First Vespers on the preceding evening and generally take precedence over all other observances. Second Class feasts do not have a First Vespers; their Vespers generally take precedence over the Saturday Vespers preceding an ordinary Sunday. Third Class feasts are observed with their own office, elements of which are taken either from the Proper or the Common of Saints in the service books used. Fourth Class feasts, also called Optional Commemorations, do not have their own office but may be commemorated at Matins [or Vigils and Lauds] and Vespers or observed at the Eucharist of the day or both. Local communities or households will need to determine if and how they wish to observe them.

In this Ordo, First and Second Class feasts that are impeded are transferred to the next day of lesser rank. Local communities or households may choose to transfer them to some other available day in week that follows their assigned date.

A table of abbreviations used in the Ordo can be found at the end of the document along with notes on liturgical colors.

Collect of All Saints of the Benedictine Family [March 21]

We give you thanks, almighty God, for the Saints of the Benedictine family: and we pray that the zeal of the holy monks and nuns of the ages may inspire us to holiness of life; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit one God, now and forever. Amen.

These are observance currently in the OHC calendar. Any of these as well as any others authorized by the local Province or diocese of the Church may be observed if and as desired. These feasts are entirely optional and are observed at the discretion of the local household, but some at least should be observed or commemorated to connect the local household to the history and culture of the wider church and of its own Province. Each household will need to consider carefully the extent and nature of such observances. NB: Those in bold face were previously observed as second or third class.

Liturgical Colors

There are no absolute rules about the colors of vestments, though since the Council of Trent Western usage became strictly prescribed. Traditionally however the best vestments, whatever their color, were worn for the greater feasts. The following color scheme is currently common in Anglican usage:

Seasonal Colors:

Christmas and Eastertide: white or gold

Advent: violet or deep blue

Lent: violet or lenten (unbleached) array

Passiontide/Holy Week: deep red or violet

(white may be used on Maundy Thursday; black on Good Friday)

Pentecost: red

Seasons after Epiphany and Pentecost: green

Feast Days and Special Occasions:

Of our Lord and Mysteries of the Faith and of Saints, unless otherwise noted: white or gold

Feasts of Mary: white or blue

Feasts of Apostles and/or Evangelists: red

Feasts of Martyrs: red

Departed: black or violet or white

Exceptions or Clarifications:

St. John the Evangelist (December 27): white

Confession of St. Peter (January 18): white

Conversion of St. Paul (January 25): white

Finding of the Cross (May 3): red

Nativity of St. John Baptist (July 24): white

Beheading of St. John Baptist (August 29): red

Exaltation of the Holy Cross (September 14): red
